Newark Central School
Newark, N.Y.

To everything there is a season
and a time to every purpose under heaven.

a time to be borne and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;
a time to kill and a time to heal;
a time to break down and a time to build up;
a time to weep and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn and a time to dance;
a time to cast away stones and a time to gather stones together;
a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to get and a time to lose;
a time to keep and a time to cast away;
a time to sew and a time to rend;
a time to keep silence and a time to speak;
a time to love and a time to hate;
a time of war and a time of peace.

If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away.

Thoreau

infinite sadness of parting walking, talking, laughing tomorrow—inevitable sorrow at the parting Memories,—friendships,—feelings intertwining emotions brought together
and the apartness
the security of friendship
and the aloneness
understanding,—helping,—challenging qualities of people, some seen, others wishing to be seen fearing worlds—inner self—vastness of the unknown security within oneself—implantings from the one who makes everything exploring,—discovering what knowledge is possible for people to know about each other the positiveness unseen in the others' eyes lack of admiration for none other than oneself these traits for true friendship must be overlooked this life is so short
and we will be so sad and so glad with memories and feelings locked away
and people locked away.
let us keep in touch.

We took a glance at the times to come
And closed our eyes at the fearful sight
Must we always runaway when our hearts are sad
Or can we stand the pain of the eversetting sun?
Take a look at the past and how irrelevant it seems Remember all the happiness
And all the hopeless dreams.

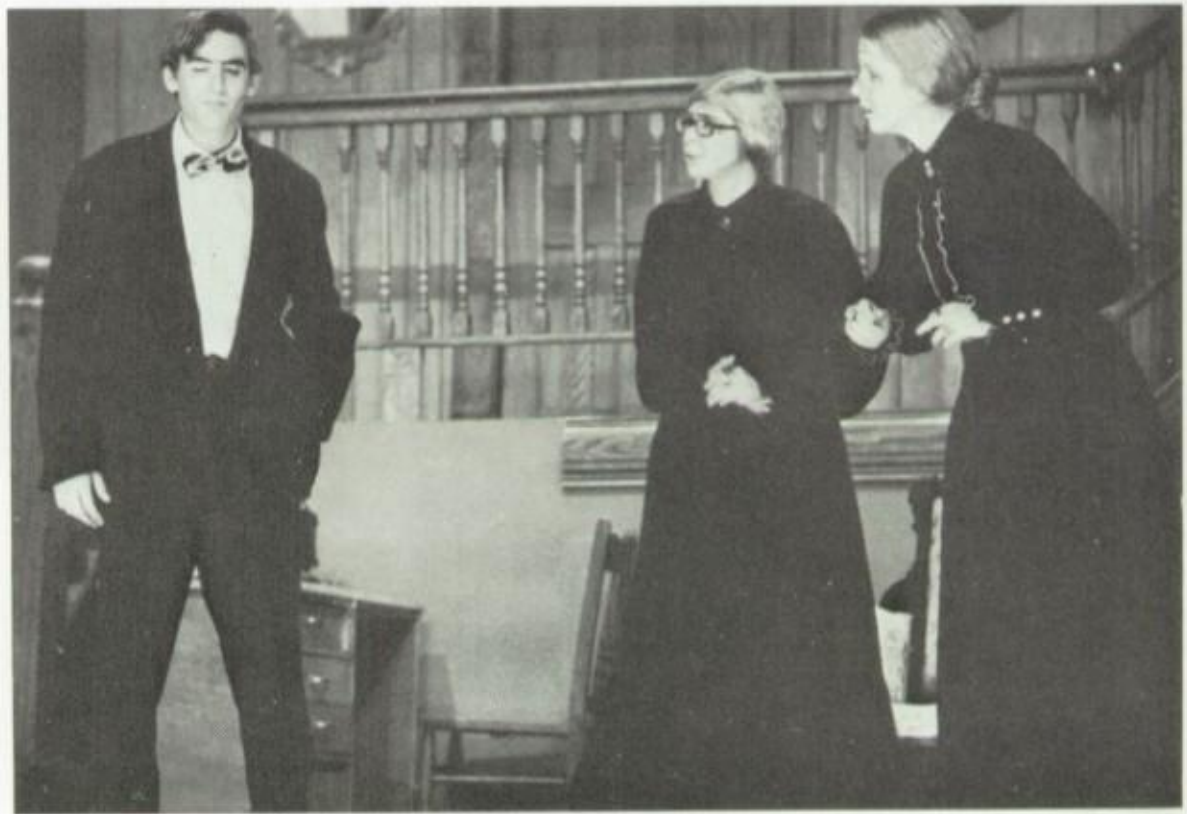

With every rising of the sun
 think of your life as just begun.
 The past has cancelled and buried deep all yesterdays there let them sleep.
 Concern yourself with just today
 grasp it and teach it to obey.
 Your will and plan
 since time began.
 Today has been a friend to man.
 Today and you! your soul sublime
 and this great heritage of time.
 With God himself to bind the two
 Go forth, brave heart:
 Today's for you!

All flesh is like grass and all its glory
like the flower of grass.
The grass withers and falls, but the word of the Lord abides forever.

Though not in body,
forever in our minds.
Now, the physical being
has lost its importance,
We are only concerned with the happiness and friendship
you have left behind.
And these colors will never fade.

Looks like another one of those days.

True happiness is of a retired nature, and an enemy to pomp and noise; in the first place, from the friendship of a few select companions; and,
in the next, realizing the
true reality of life;
live life to love.

Newark

No one knows the day that friends must part.
No one knows how near the sorrow.
If there be laughter in your heart,
Don't hold it for tomorrow.
Smile all your smiles each and every day.
Grief waits for all, along the way.

Today is ours for joy and mirth.
We may be sad tomorrow,
Then let us sing for all we're worth.
Nor give a thought to sorrow.
No one knows what lies along the way;
Let's smile what smiles we can today.
